Six Candidates File For Office

As the Cooperator went to press six candidates for Town Council had filed their petitions. They are: Abraham Chasanow, 11-T Ridge; Vernon T. Fox, 7-C Crescent; David Granahan, 10-J Plateau; Mrs. Wells Harrington, 4-C Plateau; James C. Smith, 4-H Southwest.

Mr. Chasanow, a Greenbelter since 1939, has been president of the Citizens Association, Board member of G.H.A., president of the P.T.A., and is now vice-president of Greenbelt Mutual Housing Association. He is a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States and of the U. S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Dunbar, who is running for re-election, is the only candidate so far who has served on the Town Council. He is now serving his second successive term. He is a director of the Community Church.

Mr. Granahan began Greenbelt activities in 1942 in committee work with the Citizens Association, relative to the improvement of the war houses. Now vice-president of the GCS board of directors, he has been president of the Citizens Association and treasurer of PTA, as well as vice-president of the Potomac Cooperative Federation.

Mrs. Wells Harrington, a resident for five years, is president of the County Council of PTA. She served as president of the Greenbelt Elementary School PTA and as chairman of the Community War Fund. She also has worked on the Red Cross Drive.

Mr. Fox and Mr. Smith, both old-time residents, have not been reached yet for detailed background information.

As of Tuesday, approximately 140 new voters had been added to the official list, according to Town Clerk Winfield McCamy.

A rehearsal of the full program has been called for Monday afternoon, August 11, at 3 p. m.

Register Saturdays; Deadline Approaches

Saturday morning registration hours from 9 to 1 at the office were instituted by Town Clerk Winfield McCamy two weeks ago. Tomorrow only the registration place will be moved to 4-C Hillside Road for the convenience of northend residents. There will be 3 more Saturday registrations before the deadline of August 31. After this date a fee of fifty cents will be charged for the privilege of taking part in the council election on September 16.

Mrs. McCamy has called from the official list of eligible voters the names of those who have moved away and those who although registered, failed to vote in either of the last two elections. These names are posted both in the town office and the post office, and residents are advised to check up on their eligibility.

Parade Hails Birthday, New Store

Howard Franklin

The biggest parade in Greenbelt's history swung around town Saturday in a double celebration of the town's tenth birthday and the breaking ground for the super-market the Co-op is erecting this fall.

Escorted by Greenbelt's police cruiser and two State cops on motorcycles, the four convertibles leading the procession were packed with notables.

In the first car were four County Commissioners with Mayor George Bauer.

The Town Council from Greenbelt's neighbor community Hyattsville, were in the second car. The third car carried the four council members and Anna Walker, 21-H Ridge Road, drum majorette, who was to have marched in the parade and taken part in the water pageant, but who was prevented by a badly cut foot.

Community Manager Cormack, Town Manager Gobbel, Co-op General Manager Ashelman, GCS President Dayton Hull and Festiva Chairman Lucile Fonda were in the next open-top.

GCS Board members Carnie Harper, Cyrilla O'Connor, Frank Lastner, Dave Granahan and Tom Ritchie were in the fifth equipage.

Three bands provided music along the route: the 327th Band of the Army Chemical Center, Aberdeen, the Greenbelt Band, and the Silver Spring Boys' Band. Concerts were presented by the latter during the gala afternoon, while the Greenbelt Band played for the water pageant.

Out of the 19 major organizations in Greenbelt, 15 participated in the parade with floats and marching units.

Led by Greenbelt's volunteers, fire trucks from Bladensburg, Oxon Hill, Berwyn Heights, Riverdale Heights, Lanham Hills and Brashears Hills lent color and noise.

Northenders—You Can't Gripe This Time

Town Clerk Winfield McCamy announces that she will accept registrations from Northenders tomorrow morning (Saturday, August 9) from 9 to 1, at 4-C Hillside Road. Northend residents who want to participate in the town council election on September 16 may take advantage of this opportunity. Anyone who has lived in Greenbelt for six months and in the State of Maryland one year is eligible to register. Under the terms of the Hatch Act, persons in the Civil Service are allowed to participate in local elections without losing their status.

Prior to the last municipal election Northend residents charged that the place and hours of registration were inconvenient, and that due notice was not given of changes in the registration schedules.

Festival Souvenirs

Festival Chairman Lucile Fonda announced a surplus of the 28-page programs for the day. "They make ideal souvenirs and are fine to send home because they contain the story of Greenbelt, with pictures, besides giving the order of festival events and the committee members," she said.

New Choral Group Plans First Meet

Plans for a Greenbelt choral group will be made at a meeting Monday, August 11, at 8:30 p. m. in the Center School home economics room.

Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer in announcing the meeting, said that if enough interest is shown, the services of Dr. Harlan Randall, head of Maryland University's music department, may be obtained to direct and train the group.

Visioning a potential group as large as 300 members of adult and high school age, Mrs. Kinzer urged that everyone interested in choral training and expression attend Monday's meeting to form a nucleus from which to expand.

Our Landlord

Under the terms of President Truman's Reorganization Act, Greenbelt's Federal boss is no longer FPHA but PHA, standing for Public Housing Administration. PHA is included under the Housing and Home Finance Agency (NHA's successor) along with FHA and HOLC.

Greenbelt will no longer be directed from a field office in Washington, but from New York, by Regional Director Charles B. Lawrence.

Reception Aug. 12

For New Doctors

A reception for the two new doctors and the nurse who recently joined the Greenbelt Health Association's medical staff will be held at the quarterly membership meeting Tuesday night, August 12, in the social room of the center elementary school. The Association now boasts the largest staff in its history, with a full-time receptionist and bookkeeper as well as three physicians and three registered nurses.

The reception is being given in honor of Doctors James Andrews and Joseph Berkembilt, and Mrs. Raymond Murphy, the new nurse.

A proposed raise in dues will be voted on by members at this meeting. Another highlight will be the report on the Cooperative Health Conference being held at Haverford, Pa. this week, and attended by Mrs. Ruth Watson, receptionist. Reports will be given by the president and treasurer.

To The Editor

To Do or Do Not!

The question has been raised concerning the safety and effectiveness of cold wave preparations for home use.

Greenbelt Consumer Services sells such a preparation in the pharmacy in response to requests from customers. It is not our practice to recommend this product or other proprietary preparations.

We are told that Parents Magazine recommends home wave preparations while Good Housekeeping will not. Similarly, some of our customers are very pleased with the home wave results they get while others are not.

GCS operates a beauty shop where trained operators will provide a choice of cold waves, machineless or machine type permanents. This service is under the supervision of skilled technicians who are naturally better able to insure uniform results.

Thanks!

I wish that I could list the name of each person who helped with the Festival. Since I have only 150 words it will be impossible, but I wish to take this opportunity to say, "Thank you," to each and every one who helped, even in a small way, to make the Festival a success. There is one name I must mention in all fairness as most of the work fell on his shoulders. Without him we would not have achieved the finished program that we did—I'm sure you all know that I speak of "Robbie" Robertson. Many, many thanks to all—even the weather man who put the finishing touches on a perfect day.

LUCILE FONDA,
Chairman, Festival Committee

Lauds Home Waves

Re the letter written by my neighbor, Mrs. Sauls, I feel I must write in defense of the home permanents. I can understand why beauty parlors would put such a sign in their windows, but I don't know where Mrs. Sauls got her information that home permanents look like tar rope. I have given one to my husband's mother, one to my sister-in-law, and one to my daughter, my niece and two to myself. For the information of any interested persons, they have all turned out very nicely, and have been much softer than most waves I have received in the beauty parlors, and I may add, a great deal cheaper. I don't think it is fair for people to try and discredit something they have not tried themselves.

I may add that there has been no sign of infection, and only five hours' time was needed to complete each wave.

Comprehensive Personal Liability

The average person does not realize the grave legal liabilities to which they are daily exposed—not the very low cost of insurance protection against such hazards. A person can be sued if their occasional maid or sitter is injured while doing their housework, if their child knocks a neighbor's eye out, if their golf ball injures a caddy, if their dog bites a neighbor, if their newsboy or postman trips over a wire or toy in the yard and is injured, if their child dives into the swimming pool and injures a bather, if their boy riding a bicycle runs into someone, if a visitor trips over a rug or falls down the steps, and for countless other reasons. Damage suits of these types have ruined the lifetime savings of many people.

Complete protection against such hazards is obtainable on a family-wide basis, under the form of insurance known as "Comprehensive Personal Liability" at the yearly rate of $10.00 for $10,000.00 protection or $13.50 for $50,000.00 protection, in addition to free immediate medical expenses at time of accident, free lawyer's services, payment of bonds, court costs and fees and all other legal expenses.

Shamrocks Score

Second Victory

With two big innings, the second and fifth, the Shamrocks scored their second league victory of the second half at the expense of the Sandy Spring nine, 5-3.

Pete Labukas started for the local nine and pitched fair ball for six innings, when he had to be lifted for a relief hurler. Ernie Boggs, veteran Shamrock pitcher, took over and showed the local crowd he still has plenty of old speed. Lou Tierney, local catcher, came through with two long triples and a single to lead the Shamrocks in hitting. Shamrock pitcher Labukas did his share of hitting, with a long smash to deep center and a single to add to the Greenbelt victory.

This Sunday the Greenbelt team will journey to Potomac for another league contest. The team members will meet at the swimming pool at 1 p.m. Game time is 3 p.m.

Cana Conference To Be Held Aug. 9

The third Cana Conference for married couples in Greenbelt will be held on Saturday evening, August 9, at 8 p.m., at the Co-op Nursery School, 14 Parkway Road.

The Rev. Conleth Overman, a Passionist Priest of St. Louis, Mis- meeting because of the interest in Greenbelt to give the evening's souri, is making a special trip to Cana among many Greenbelt couples. The subject is "Parent-Child Relations." Father Overman has given more than 24 conferences in the field of parent-child relationships. In his most recent conference held in Washington on May 25, he was comforting and inspirational in his development of the guiding principles of child rearing.

Father Victor Dowgiallo is heartily in accord with the meeting and hopes that his parishioners will turn out in great numbers.

Legion Juniors Continue To Win

The Legion Junior baseball team is continuing their winning streak. Last Saturday, they defeated Colmar Manor 4-0, with Ronnie Bierwagon pitching his second successive shutout. On Sunday the boys traveled to Hyattsville, where they defeated the Snyder-Farmer-Butler Post team 3-0 for the second shutout of the weekend. BoBo Hause allowed only five hits and struck out thirteen. Bauer and Ohmany hit doubles. Ohmany is doing the catching during Martone's absence. Greenbelt featured 2 double plays stopping a rally both times and preventing Hyattsville from scoring.

HELP US SAVE YOU MONEY!

During the first 6 months of 1947, we spent over $3,900 of your money for paper bags and wrapping supplies in the main Food Store. This amount indicates approximately one-third more than we spent for the same period last year (proportionately). This one-third, or $1,300, will not be available for patronage refunds.

True, paper bags are much higher than ever before—also the quality has fallen greatly thereby making it necessary to use more. However, all of you can help us cut down this costly expense by using your own shopping bags and by not insisting on bags for one or two items. When shopping for produce especially, please use bags only when necessary and also do not use bags larger than necessary.

We know that we can count on your cooperation. Help yourself to greater patronage refunds by helping us cut down expenses.

Thank you.

Gobbel Opposes

Expensive Gift

Greenbelters have been wondering for almost a month about the yellow numerals painted on the roads around town. It turns out that the Federal Government has hired an engineering firm to prepare a description of the "right of way" prior to a decision on the eventual owner, whether the state of Maryland or the municipality.

The survey will also restate the boundaries between town and federal property. The numerals correspond to code numbers on the engineers' maps.

Town Manager Gobbel does not feel enthusiastic about the roads being dedicated to the town, because of the high cost of upkeep. "The section of Southway leading from the Center to the High School would cost at least $125,000 to put into shape," he declared. Crescent from Hillside Road to the Lake has no "base," and because of springs in the roadbed needs a system of special drains, he said.

The town would be entitled to a share of the state of Maryland's racing revenue to be used in road maintenance, Gobbel stated, but he added that it would be a very small amount compared to the sums that would be necessary.

Block Doll Shows

Children at the Mary Burns Playground on D block brought out their best dolls last Friday. Sara Walter's doll, clad in a red ice skating outfit, complete with little silver skates, was judged the prettiest.

The most unique dolls, a little German boy and girl, were brought by Corinne Coleman. Joanne Motyka had the smallest doll and Marion Huber, the prettiest "baby" doll.

At the Crescent-Parkway Playground, Beth Russ' doll won first prize.

B Block also celebrated last week with a costume parade. First prize was awarded to Mary Lou Deady; second to Lillian Castoldy, and third prize to Pat Cawley. After the colorful affair, refreshments were served by the mothers.

Fortune Smiled

"Seems like all the boys got girls' things, and vice versa," commented Prizes Chairman Paul Dunbar this week, referring to the drawings held in connection with Greenbelt's birthday festival.

He had especially in mind the small boy who won the big baby doll and the little girl whose ticket brought her a regulation soccer ball. Then there was the man with two grown sons who won a chemistry set, and the car-less woman who rated a hand-out of spark plugs. A young matron drew a pair of roller skates.

Perfectly happy, thank you, were Betty Harrington, 4-C Plateau Place, who won the electric mixer; Mrs. Maxine Batie, floor lamp, Mrs. James McCarl, pressure cooker; Mrs. Carroll Seeley, manicure set, and Walter Paiva, Bendix console radio. These were all donated by GCS. Martin Chelstrom won the share of Co-op stock from the grab bag.

Other Co-op prizes ranged from cleaning certificates and ice cream to theater passes and oil changes.

The vacuum cleaner donated by Sears Roebuck was won by Mrs. Jack Slansky. Recreational equipment came from the Sport Center.

Several unlucky residents were not present when their names were called, so their prizes were awarded to the next fellows whose tickets were drawn.

J.C.C. Handball

The Jewish Community Center round-robin handball tournament is scheduled to start August 9 and continue on the following weekends until all teams have played each other. The team names are listed as follows:

1-Tillem-Terketaub; 2-Goldberg-Berkofsky; 3-Bukzin-Herman; 4-Esposito-Seward; 5-Avagliano-Fink; 6-Shinderman-Tenenbaum; 7-Barnett-Steinman; 8-Boycoff-Schwimmer; 9-Machiz-White; 10-Wexler-Levine; 11-Graham-Stutz; 12-Winklestein-Nusinov; 13-Shatz-Shorr; 14-Pines-Weiss.

The game of shuffle board, known in England as early as the 15th century, was a favorite among the aristocracy, who called it "shove-groat," "slide-groat" or "shovel penny," according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Riverdale Wins Hot Hose Contest

Winners of the fire truck "hit the target" competition last Saturday were the members of the Riverdale crew, who connected with the hydrant, laid off 100 feet of hose, and hit the mark (a basket atop a box) in 14 seconds flat.

A fifteen-pound carbon dioxide extinguisher worth $40 was presented to the Riverdalers.

A sham fire at 5 p.m. featured smoke and noise bombs on the roof of the Administration Building over Community Manager Cormack's office. These were soon disposed of by the Greenbelt Volunteers, who also performed a ladder rescue of a victim trapped on the roof.

Youth Had The Day

Approximately 1200 kids applauded the outdoor movies shown on the far side of the Center School Saturday evening. The projector had to be moved to a truck platform to protect it from the milling throng.

Sinbad the Sailor, Jack Frost, and Jack and the Beanstalk were among the characters enjoyed by the children.

Other features of the day especially appreciated by the young fry were the merry-go-round, the pony rides, and the balloons offered for sale.

Helena DeGourse's youthful tumblers were the most appreciated feature of the evening entertainment.

Ora Donoghue, 2-A Woodland Way, and Don Brewer, 2-E Eastway, took the leading parts in last Saturday's water pageant.

Prior to the start of the procession Parade Marshal "Robbie" Robertson with his well-known cigar was a one-man show as he dashed from one unit to another to check up and give the go-ahead signals. Robertson is facilities engineer in charge of building the new store.

The judges, Managers Cormack and Gobbel and GCS President Hull, were hard put to it in awarding cups for the best non-commercial float, the best marching unit and the best appearing fire truck. Legion Post 136 won the first class on the basis of its story-telling and educational appeal, Boy Scout Troop 202 and Cub pack received a cup for their "camp on wheels," and Riverdale Heights won the fire truck parade contest on the basis of neatness and the number of men on the truck. The Oxon Hill unit which came from over 25 miles away won a special award on this account.

Church groups taking part were the Greenbelt Community Church,

St. Hugh's Catholic Church, the Latter Day Saints, the Lutheran Church and the Hebrew Congregation.

Especially commented on by the Washington Post were the number of children in the parade. The largest aggregation of tiny tots marched in the Co-op Nursery School section.

In the interest of fairness and safety to everyone—

One Teacher Per Seventy-Five Kids

To handle this year's expected enrollment of nearly 300 kindergartners, four teachers' positions have been filled, according to Mrs. Mary Jane Kinzer, Acting Educational Director. New members of the department are Mrs. Janet Lundvall and Mrs. Phyllis Eckhardt. Mrs. Katherine Mitchell, formerly of the North End staff, will replace Mrs. Janet Yeatts as kindergarten supervisor at the Center School. Mrs. Yeatts has joined the County school staff, teaching the first grade at the Center School. Mrs. Joy Butterfield will return to the Center School staff.

According to Mrs. Selma Posner, chairman of the "Summer Round-up," the Public Health office has examined 224 prospective kindergartners. 295 cards have been sent to families with kindergarten candidates. Only two per cent of those examined showed any ear or eye defects. Mrs. Stauffer urged that the mothers of any children born during the year 1942 make arrangements with her for an examination. Call 6111 before 9 a.m.

Smallpox and diphtheria inoculation are required and whooping cough inoculation requested before entering school. They will be given free of charge to children on Tuesdays between nine and ten a.m. at the Public Health office at 54-A Crescent Road.

Kindergarten consultations will be held September 10, registration September 11 and 12, and classes will start September 15. Regular classes in the other grades will begin September 10.

A heavy increase in kindergarten-age children in the north end of town has caused the dividing line to be changed from Eastway to Gardenway, for kindergarten only. For other grades, Eastway still separates Center from North End pupils.

Birthday Notices

Greenbelt's tenth birthday attracted wide press notices. Acclaimed by Eleanor Roosevelt in "My Day," it was also the subject of an Associated Press article in the New York Times. The Baltimore Sun and all the Washington papers carried stories and pictures, and the Post feature "District Line" also put in a plug.
